Personally, I love 24 hour time. There are 24 hours in 1 day, and so let's all refer to each hour as it is sequenced within the day. I realise 24 hour time is well known in Europe, but this isn't the case in many other parts of the world. Unfortunately, many of our guests struggle with the 24 hour format. And so I frequently get check-in requests at 2:00, 6:00 etc... I

3rd party booking sites typically do not offer 24 hour refunds and there is no legal requirements to do so outside the USA anyway. Some non US airlines do offer this, for example BA, but you need to book direct. Unfortunately the time to do research into pricing is before handing over your cash. Edited: 2 years ago
