A House for Hermit Crab is about a little hermit crab who must find a new home and discovers new friends and possibilities in the process. In the story, Hermit Crab thinks his new shell looks too plain. Over time he meets new friends that help add to his shell. We used sponges and paint to decorate our shells for our handprint hermit crab craft.

A hermit crab who has outgrown his old shell moves into a new one, which he decorates and enhances with the sea creatures he meets in his travels.

Hermit Crab seeks the perfect home--and learns to appreciate change--in this Ready-to-Read edition of Eric Carle's beloved story. In this classic story from Eric Carle, Hermit Crab grows out of one house after another as he searches for the perfect home. Children who must change schools, move to a new town, or even graduate to a new grade in school will relate to Hermit Crab's situation and take heart as they see that growing up isn't really so scary after all. Filled with whimsy and wisdom--and based on the true behaviors of the hermit crab--this modern classic features Eric Carle's trademark vibrant collage illustrations and lively text that has been adapted into a Level 2 Ready-to-Read edition, making it ideal for newly independent readers.

Nipper the crab hates his huge, clumsy claws until his friend Octopus gets tangled up in some seaweed and only Nipper can free him.

After Mrs. Seahorse lays her eggs on Mr. Seahorse's belly, he drifts through the water, greeting other fish fathers who are taking care of their eggs, in a story that includes a "hide-and-peek" feature with acetate overlays.

Momma and Poppa crab have a problem. Their three crabblings, Claudius, Gemma, and Albert, are growing bigger and bigger making their coconut home feel smaller and smaller. It's time the crabblings take the first big step towards independence, finding their very own shell. "Be careful," Momma crab warns them, "your shell is not just for looks, it will protect you from Hook Billed Heron!" Will the three crabblings listen to Momma and Poppa and find their perfect shell or will they have too much fun and forget their parents warning?

When Hermit Crab outgrows his old house, he ventures out to find a new one.

Slowly, slowly, slowly . . . that's the way the sloth moves. Slowly, it eats and then, slowly, it falls asleep. "What strange kind of creature is this?" the other animals wonder. Why doesn't it run or fly or play or hunt like the rest of us? "Why are you so slow?" the howler monkey inquires. But the sloth doesn't answer any questions until the jaguar asks, "Why are you so lazy?" Anyone who has ever felt too busy will appreciate the sloth's peaceful lifestyle and realize that it's okay to take time to enjoy life. Eric Carle's dazzling collage illustrations introduce readers to the exotic beauty of the Amazon rain forest and the many unusual animals living there.
